Where would you like to go?

- Japan...
- Europe...
- Australia...
- New Zealand...
- South America...

Opportunities are available for young people between the ages of 16 and 21 to travel to these places with the Lions Youth Exchange program at very reasonable package rates. The exchange usually occurs for 4-6 weeks during the summer months of July and August and is a cultural exchange.

Sometimes the youth will spend part of the time at an International Youth camp sponsored by a Lions Club in their host country and part of the time with a host family.

Youths Must Be...

- Sponsored by a Lions Club
- Of good moral character
- Over age 16 and not over age 21 at the time of the exchange (see specific age requirements on the website for certain countries)
- A responsible representative of their country & their community
- Able to pay for their travel package
- Have a desire to learn about another culture
- Have their parent's consent to travel
